Hi, Anna,

For Thursday, is there any problem with Rory and me remaining in your conference room until 10:30 without you there?

As for the strike, it's a day-by-day wait and see. Barb said they're cancelling the next week's activities one week at a time, so it all depends on how long the strike lasts. I don't think it will be difficult to resume normal routines as soon as teachers return to classrooms. We'll have to see what this week brings. My own schedule in March and April make it tough to reschedule but I'll go back to our date poll to see if most of the presenters had an alternate time to March 1st that I could re-survey them for just in case.

As for the updates to slides, I could use your Student Contacts portal to update some of the stats. Let's look over your segment on Thursday to determine what you might be able to hand off to me or still manage yourself.

Hi Janelle,
Some additional work has come up along with personal commitments. I may not be able to do much to update the slides. In addition, I have to leave the meeting Thursday by 9:30.

Additionally, I was wondering if with the strike will they even be ready for a presentation on March 1. It seems like with so much upheaval they'd need time to recoup. Do you want to see if they would like to reschedule? That would give us some more prep time.
